

Dear Library Patron,

Good news – Forsyth County Public Library has subscribed to a fun, new reading program that you and your child can access from home! Scholastic BookFlix is an online literacy resource that pairs classic video storybooks from Weston Woods with related nonfiction eBooks from Scholastic to build a love of reading and learning. This engaging resource for children in grades PreK-3 will help early readers develop and practice essential reading skills and introduces students to a world of knowledge and exploration.

Your children can access Scholastic BookFlix anywhere there is an Internet connection. BookFlix includes:

- > 80 classic video storybooks each paired with a related nonfiction eBook.
- > Read-aloud supports so students can hear each book narrated and also hear definitions of key words and directions for each activity read aloud.
- > Educational games and activities so children can show what they have learned.
- > Safe, age-appropriate web links selected by Scholastic's editors so kids can extend their learning on a topic.
- > Meet the author section to learn more about the author of each fiction book.

Scholastic BookFlix is specifically created to support non-, beginning and reluctant readers – it's the perfect resource for independent reading practice at the library and at home!

To use BookFlix at home, go to the library's web page at www.forsythpl.org. Click on the Kids-Teens-Parents link, then on Kids-Preschool/Elementary. Scroll down to the BookFlix link. BookFlix is also available on the kids' computers in the Children's area of the library.

Happy reading!
