MAILBOX BOOKS Library Service for the Homebound

Forsyth County
Public Library

For Patrons Who are Homebound

It's free!

The Mailbox Books program is provided to cardholders of the Forsyth County Public Library who are homebound due to age, chronic illness, physical disability, or condition. Patrons who experience a condition which temporarily prevents them from visiting the library are also eligible for the service.

Requirements for service are a current card in good standing and a completed application for the program. Patrons who need large type/audio books must submit an additional certification form.

More than Books

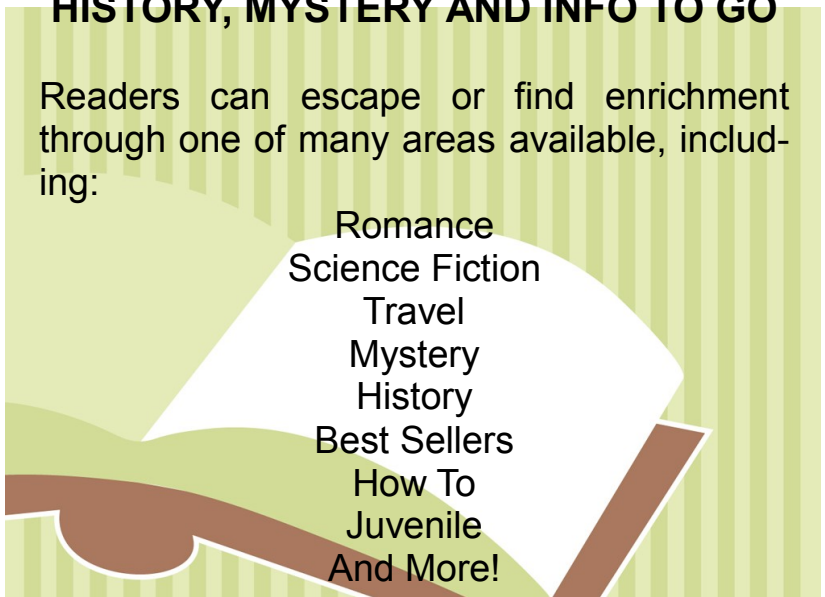

Mailbox customers have access to all materials currently available for checkout from the library. Included are music CDs, large print and standard print books, paperbacks, videos/DVDs, books on CD, magazines and multimedia CDs. Interlibrary loans are also available.

Easy to Get

Materials can be specifically requested or the library staff can make selections for a reader based on his/her preferences.

HISTORY, MYSTERY AND INFO TO GO

Readers can escape or find enrichment through one of many areas available, including:

- Romance
